Basic Facts

- Medical Staffs are a collection of highly motivated and extremely independent individuals.
- Doctors listen to doctors.
- Hospitals need someone to stand up and lead!
- Culture eats strategy for lunch!
- Doctors drive culture.
- We have the knowledge and experience to drive the change to bring the desired deliverables.

Who are we?

- Physician Motivators is an ensemble of physicians who are not working everyday as consultant, rather we are working almost everyday in our own towns at our own hospitals.
- We have collective experience of practicing clinical medicine as well as in major leadership roles in our own hospitals.
